

Can We Talk About This? The Prosecutor and Grand Jury Secrecy

This presentation discusses the history of the grand jury secrecy principle and the uncertain application of Arizona's grand jury secrecy statute.

Ryan Green was born and raised here in Arizona. After attending college and law school out of state, he moved back home to begin a career in public service. He has been a prosecutor with the Maricopa County Attorney's Office since October of 2001. During the course of his career, he has worked in several different positions or bureaus. Ryan began in the preliminary hearing bureau, worked briefly in the probation violation bureau, and then spent three years in a general felony trial group. In 2005, he moved to the Gang Bureau where he served for nine and a half years. In 2014, he was transferred to the Capital Litigation Bureau where he handled death penalty cases. In October of 2017, Ryan began working as the Bureau Chief in the Training and Development Bureau. Finally, in February of 2020, Ryan became the Division Chief of the Training and Post-Conviction Division
